

Captain Lieutenant John De Meneses:

He was born in Portugal but served in General Skinners Brigade, as part of the New Jersey Volunteers during the American Revolutionary War. In 1785 he settled with the Loyalists in New Brunswick, Canada. He likely returned to the US because he does not appear in further Loyalist references in that province.

Tony Mendes, Toronto, Canada.